- BOARD MEMBER APPLICATION FORM

THE CARTER & OLAY
FOUNDATION, INC.

Disclaimer and Acknowledgment

By submitting this application, you acknowledge and agree to the following terms and conditions regarding your potential role as a board member of The Carter & Olay Foundation (TCOF).

Accuracy of Information

All information provided in this application must be true, complete, and accurate to the best of your knowledge. Submission of false, incomplete, or misleading information may result in disqualification from the application process or removal from the board if selected.

Non-Guarantee of Selection

Submission of this application does not guarantee selection as a board member. The TCOF Board of Directors reserves the right to evaluate all applications and make decisions based on organizational needs, alignment with mission and values, and candidate qualifications.

Confidentiality

All information submitted through this application will be treated as confidential and used solely for the purposes of assessing your candidacy. TCOF adheres to strict data protection and privacy standards in compliance with applicable laws.

Commitment to Mission and Values

By applying, you affirm your commitment to the mission, vision, and values of TCOF, including its focus on empowering children of color through financial literacy and educational programming. Board members are expected to uphold these principles in their actions, decisions, and representations of the organization.

Board Responsibilities and Expectations

Board members are required to:

- Act in the best interests of TCOF and its stakeholders.
- Attend all scheduled meetings and actively participate in board activities, including fundraising efforts, strategy development, and program oversight.
- Commit to an annual donation or fundraising contribution as outlined in the board member agreement.
- Maintain confidentiality regarding sensitive organizational information.

Conflicts of Interest

Board members are required to disclose any potential, perceived, or actual conflicts of interest that may arise during their tenure. TCOF has a Conflict of Interest Policy that must be reviewed, signed, and adhered to by all members. Failure to disclose conflicts of interest may result in removal from the board.

Ethical Standards and Legal Compliance

TCOF board members are expected to adhere to the highest ethical standards and comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and nonprofit governance requirements. This includes but is not limited to compliance with 501(c)(3) regulations and adherence to policies related to the protection and well-being of children served by the organization.

Subject Matter Expertise and Contributions

As a board member, you agree to leverage your professional skills, expertise, and network to advance TCOF's mission. This includes participating in advisory capacities, contributing to strategic discussions, and supporting operational and programmatic goals as needed.

Working with Children

Given TCOF's focus on programming for children, all board members may be subject to background checks and must comply with child safety and protection policies. Board members must also adhere to all ethical guidelines for working with and advocating for children.

Voluntary Service and Indemnity

Board membership is a voluntary position, and board members will not receive compensation for their service. By applying, you agree to indemnify TCOF against any liabilities arising from actions taken in good faith in your capacity as a board member.

Acceptance and Onboarding

If selected, you will be required to complete an onboarding process, which includes signing the TCOF Board Member Agreement, reviewing organizational policies, and participating in initial training sessions.

By signing below, you confirm your understanding and acceptance of the terms outlined above.
